Ground Floor

The Shelbourne’s iconic ballroom has hosted many legendary events. The Great Room features a private entrance, historic reception rooms, ornate décor, elegant lighting and audio-visual equipment.

First Floor

The meeting rooms on The Shelbourne’s first floor provide an elegant and atmospheric backdrop for meetings, private dining, and small receptions. Named to reflect the soul and history of the hotel, each boasts beautiful views of St. Stephen’s Green, and each is individually decorated in keeping with its unique character. Most renowned is The Constitution Suite, where Ireland’s first constitution was drafted in 1922 under the chairmanship of Michael Collins. As a counterpoint to their historical décor, each room can offer high speed internet access and advanced audio-visual facilities, available upon request.
